Join MCLA students, faculty and staff for creative expression and conversation about diversity, identity, social justice and belonging.

Please sign up via email to contribute: thomas.alexander@mcla.edu (There will also be open mic time if the spirit moves you at the event!). Bring friends and make new ones as we explore the threads of our diverse community. The evening will end with brainstorming about how to create ongoing diversity dialogues for 2016-17 and beyond.
