FINE AND PERFORMING ARTS MAJOR PROGRAM

The Department of Fine and Performing Arts offers a four-year program leading to a Bachelor of Arts in Fine and Performing Arts. The program provides students with a general introduction to the arts through a set of foundation courses. Students then concentrate in one of four areas: art, arts management, music or theatre. Students graduating with a degree in Fine and Performing Arts will be able to:

- Demonstrate a broad-based understanding of the studio and historical/theoretical aspects of the fine and performing arts;

- Demonstrate expertise in a chosen concentration of Art, Arts Management, Music or Theatre;
- Demonstrate practical experience in public performance or exhibition in the arts;
- Demonstrate an understanding of the economic dimensions of the arts.

ARTS MANAGEMENT MAJOR PROGRAM

The Department of Fine and Performing Arts also offers a four-year program leading to a Bachelor of Arts in Arts Management. This unique program is a total immersion in the business of the arts. The major features art, music and theatre, combined with business administration and public relations, to create expertise in grants and fund raising, museum studies, performing arts management and other non-profit endeavors in the arts. The program's internship and future employment opportunities are enhanced through MCLA partners in the Berkshire art community such as the Massachusetts Museum of Contemporary Art (MASS MoCA) and the Sterling and Francine Clark Art Institute, where MCLA students and graduates actively participate in many aspects of art administration. This hands-on connection to the creative economy - the interaction of arts, educational and business enterprises - serves as a culminating experience to the Arts Management curriculum and facilitates entry into an expanding job market in arts related enterprises. For information about this program please refer to the Arts Management section of this catalog.

ART MAJOR PROGRAM

The Department of Fine and Performing Arts offers a four-year program leading to a Bachelor of Arts in Art. The art major features hands-on courses in the creation and techniques of art, as well as courses in visual culture and media. Classes include both traditional and nontraditional, experimental approaches to media such as drawing, painting, graphic design, photography, film-making, broadcast, communications, computer graphics and costume design. After completing a series of foundation courses, advanced students design an individualized focus area based on their career goals, culminating in a final senior art project. Opportunities may include internships with area arts organizations such as the Massachusetts Museum of Contemporary Art, the Sterling and Francine Clark Art Institute, and MCLA Gallery 51. For information about this program please refer to the art section of this catalog.

DEPARTMENT POLICY REGARDING DOUBLE MAJORS/CONCENTRATIONS/MINOR PROGRAMS

Due to redundancies in these program's curricula, students cannot combine the following programs:

- Fine & Performing Arts Major with Concentration PLUS Art Major
- Fine & Performing Arts Major with Arts Management Concentration PLUS Arts Management Major

Students may not minor in the same discipline as their major or concentration, but they may minor outside their discipline area. For example: FPA/Art concentration major may not also minor in Art, but could minor in THEA, AMGT, MUSI or other disciplines.

TEACHING LICENSURE

Students majoring in fine and performing arts may opt to pursue initial teacher licensure as an early childhood teacher or elementary teacher.

Students seeking any of these licenses must complete a fine and performing arts major, education major and a licensure program in education.
