Berkshire Creative Intern / BHIP

If you are interested in arts, culture, the creative economy, organizational development, and being in the middle of a lot of good change - you couldn't find a better internship! We're looking for an interested, enthusiastic individual to assist Berkshire Creative and its leadership team. Berkshire Creative stimulates job growth and economic opportunity in the region by sparking innovative collaborations between artists, designers, cultural institutions and businesses through unique events, initiatives, and communication resources. BHIP interns have been part of Berkshire Creative since our inception 5 years ago, so we know how well your talent and motivation align with our organizational culture!

Berkshire Creative will fit your skills and interests with a particular project to maximize your experience at our site and in the greater BHIP program. Options may include:

- Assessing the economic development needs of the creative economy through existing reports and conducting additional research, surveys, and interviews
- Managing the execution of a new membership program
- Communications oversight including website postings, graphic design, press writing, and social media
- Learning and managing the Berkshires Audience Initiative program

Guidance and oversight will be provided by the manager and a Berkshire Creative Economy Council committee member. Berkshire Creative is located at 66 Allen Street, Pittsfield Mass. It in encouraged that interested applicants arrange transportation or utilize their own vehicle for easy commuting between North Adams and Pittsfield.

Contact info@berkshirecreative.org with your letter of interest and a resume no later than Friday, May 10, 2013. You will begin your work with Berkshire Creative on Monday, June 3, 2013.
