Sprague On Parade Interviews Sgt. Williams

Director Larry Mulven did a magnificent job on the July 18th broadcast. His solo, "Play Fiddle Play," and his duet with the charming Mrs. Charlotte Lasher, "Somewhere I'll Find You" were both most pleasing. The chorus did exceptionally well in their selections, "Sommer Paratus" and "Dream of Summer" as did the vivacious Miss Christine Cardillo who sang out with her superb soprano voice in the famous "St. Mi Chiamano, Minnie" from the opera La Boheme.

Master of ceremonies, Kit Carson, interviewed Sgt. Robert Williams who has been overseas forty-two months and in the service for the past twelve years. Sgt. Williams was formerly from Georgia. About two years ago he received cigarettes with the compliments of the Sprague employees and recently paid a visit to the beauty "Pent to express his thanks personally.

The dedication of the Sprague war work was given in the memory of Arthur J. Dippold, a former employee who gave his life for his country.

Everyone is welcome to attend the broadcasts. You will find watching these fine artists is as much of a treat as hearing them.

Dear Friends:

Receiving your package and want to thank you for remembering me. I also receive a copy of the Log regularly and read it from cover to cover. It is a darn good paper and the publishing staff deserve a lot of credit.

I am near Milan scouting out going home and rejoicing Sprague. We just got our ration of American beer, which helps make our stay here more endurable. Frank Smith is in Milan today to entertain and I intend to drive in and see just how good it is.

I am in the 36th "Red Ball" Division and the 168th "Rainbow Regiment.

A fine outfit and I've been with it since Aroio. Thanks again for the package.

Yours truly,

Pfc. Edw. O'Neill

Log Improves

Greetings:

Just a few lines to say hello. I have not written sooner as my outfit has been moved to new locations again. Since I wrote last I have received two letters and enjoyed them very much. The paper seems to improve each more issue. I want to thank the editor for printing my letter.

The company which I am attached to has been ordered to train Chinese soldiers. It will be quite a job but I am sure that we can do it.

The weather here at present is swell just like a summer back in the U.S.A. I hope this letter finds everyone in the best of health. Tell my friends to write.

Dear Miss Owen:

Somehow in the Pacific

Dear Miss Owen:

I am ashamed to say I didn't send you the change of address sooner, but when I noticed I had received a Log in three months I decided to get on the ball.

The Log helps to bring back the memories that I am always grooping for. It brings me back in the stockroom with Al Ganz doing over an unlisted requisition, Sam Solomon wondering where his next million is coming from and Ted Solomon dreaming that he is "National Velvet." It is surprising to me that the little things such as I just described can bring a smile to my face and let a little joy into my heart. When I was back in North Adams working in the Brown Street plant I never thought that way or appreciated all that God gave me.

Thanks to you and the other members of the Log I still have a chance to retrieve memories of the good old days.

Sincerely,

Richard Darke

VACATIONERS: Alma Kent, with husband, Al, enjoyed their week’s vacation at Nassaukot Beach, Court House, Lake George. Edna Lavarrere and Stephanie Surr visited Enfield, Conn., and they had both vacationed in Pennsylvania. Phyllis Brooks spend the week end in October on the Kennebunk, took a bus trip to Boston and took in the horse races at Suffolk Downs. Laura Cross visited her sister in Medford and surrounding beaches. Evangeline Dugas enjoyed fishing at Lake Champlain and then visited Port Henry, N.Y. Eleonor Durkee traveled to Norwicht, Conn., and New London. She also took in the local horse races and spent time at Atlantic City. Laura Cross tells us she had plenty when she was here. A recent week was spent by Anne Armstrong, who informs us she neither rocked nor washed the dishes. Lene Valet’s vacation was spent taking hikes with her sister who is ill. Mary U. has been especially happy lately for her husband, Jim, is home from furlough.

Evelyn Delac was especially happy lately for her husband, Jim, is home on furlough. Enjoy yourself, Evelyn. It’s time for a vacation.

A quick review to Beatrice Lamon and Mildred O’Grady who were oper- ated on a few days ago and are now recuperating. Frances Morse shouldn’t have kept her Southern woman all man to herself. An old friend who is also a Southern woman was on her vacation and saw her. Harry Eddy is substituting for Marion Le Lay outside while he expounds with Co. K on maneuvers. You’re doing a fine job, Harry. Keep up the good work.

Welcome to our department Harold Brown. Hope you like it here. We’re beginning to think that desk is a figment of Charles Destoiler’s imagination.

A farewell party was given for Harry Carpenier, husband of Alice, July 17th. We all went along because we knew how popular he was with everyone. A happy goodbye, Harold.

Maintenance

By Unibrico

Four of our carpenters: Bud Sher- man, Sidney Curn, Dan Stone and Adrian Poitou recently went fishing at Lake Champlain. As sound foul stories were the aftermath of this trip. Sidney tells us they had to cut the fish in two pieces to carry them in the car. Bud Sherman describes a fish that gave the boys quite a trouble. McNeil caught a lot of them.

Although Bud was on a fishing trip, he had the time of his life in the boat dung his bare feet in the water. (One way to keep cool, Bud). A few months back Bud bought the boys (not a fish story) about the frog hunt they had early one morning. Sidney says his stories have never been heard since.

An out of town vacation being made to take another trip, just to find what happened. As this goes to press, most vacations are over. How about that Clam River Art Group?

We understand that Guiseppe Riga- ldi has at last put his snow shovel away, and Mrs. Albert E. Howard celebrated their 21st wedding anniversary July 26. Best wishes for many more from the gang.

VACATIONERS: Schuyler Deuel enjoyed his vacation at Hartford, Conn., and his wife has a wonderful time. Bertrand Peters was on a fishing trip in upstate New York. We also found time to make improvements at his home. Herbert Surr spent his time in the Adirondacks fishing and rest. Herb was accompanied by his wife and son, Tom, who is on 30 days vacation for the U.S. Navy. Pacific Ocean. Harry Trombley was in Boston, Mass. during the Boston Marathon. They played their benefit contest for the Bond Sale . William Schink went to Lake Bomoseen in Vermont.

We extend a welcome to Harold Barwick. Harold has been transferred to the Drafting Department from our Workshop. We hope you like the new position.

This being the month of July (does everyone remember 1874) it seems to be the order of the day. Gene McKeen en- joyed a few days in New York. Mary Surr Bestendish spent her vacation at Hampton Beach and Bill Kirby went camping at Lake Champlain for several days. Were the electricians up there in good working order? Bill is back at his desk after a few days spent at his summer camp.

MISS AMERICA

By M. E. F

Another two weeks has swiftly passed and it’s Log time again. We will bring you up to date first on vaca- tion. Stories and Sunshine are among those present again after spending a very enjoyable week at the G-Gare Ranch.

Thursday Harry delivered his talk at the Roundup. Mr. Trepel has returned from a much needed rest. We are now in the mood to report that our friends, Mrs. Edith Carpenter and Lois Paradiso, are both at the Plunkett Mountain while undergoing operations. We are happy, however, to report that Edith’s impression of Harry’s talk is ‘Let’s see you both back soon.’

A warm welcome is extended to Miss Mary Meade, a school teacher from Williamsport, who is substituting during the summer months.

From Dobolowski has come this week to earth after honeymooning a month with her sailor husband. It’s good to have you back, Fran. M. Santoro’s favorite comic song are: “A Little on the Lonely Side” and “The Missouri Waltz.” Her husband is not so much interested in horse-back riding at the G-Gare Ranch, as you planned. Florence Sunstrum—Florence goes pre- ferably by Mrs. S. It seems she is much more comfortable now. Edith Bishop has been transferred to another year’s work after her vacation at the Bos- ton Brahms. Nice tail, Eth. Gene- vieve Spilak and Laura Cross visited the G-Gare Ranch. Mr. Trepel has returned from a much needed rest.

Two reports that our friends, Mrs. Edith Carpenter and Lois Paradiso, are both at the Plunkett Mountain while undergoing operations. We are happy, however, to report that Edith’s impression of Harry’s talk is ‘Let’s see you both back soon.’

Luella Nystrom, of Stove Suborning, noted she received an engagement for Fred DeConnick of Adams. The wedding is to take place September 15th. Marie Maymullian recently celebrated her birthday. Her co-workers presented her with a lovely gift and birthday cake made by Mary Walsh. Julia Marzone spent her vacation on Cape.

A delicious chicken supper was enjoyed by members of the P.A.A. Dept. Mary Putney was hostess. Charlie Falson's recent fishing trip at Laurel Lake in the summer was a success.

Dorothy and Bernice Gorman recently spent the week end in Providence with Mr. and Mrs. Alex Metzker. Mrs. Metzker is the former Anna Belle Primmer who formerly worked in Sprague's.

Bill Mattson, told us that Mr. Batterby has been visiting in Canada. Did you say that you are spending your vacation in England or New Zealand? Julia Shea tells us that the week she was out, the weather was perfect to have a holiday in the sun. We are glad to hear that you have a great notebook to take with you next week when you plan on going to Europe for a week's vacation. What we want to know is: Did you spend it having fun or did you have to work a lot?

Now, Larry Welld, would you let your jobs in on a secret? Just what kind of jobs do you think you have on your fishing trip on July 8th?

From all reports, Fred Miller had an enjoyable one.

Greetings to Bill Dumm. We are looking forward to your return to the Wire Coating gang! Carl Hurlberri is spending a whole week acquiring himself with his new son.

Mary Kimney reports that in a recent letter the received from her son, who is a Lieutenent in the army in Newburgh, N. Y., he has reported getting a package of tobacco sent out with the compliments of the Sprague employees.

Maintenance
By Dot Boutwell
We, of Maintenance, are all very glad to hear that Charlie Wilson is finally out of the hospital and able to be around again. Although she still has to undergo more treatment, we are glad to know that she will be back to work soon.

Your reporter will be very thankful when he does it again. He was a little shoulders.

Charlie Dean enjoyed the week of July 1st at Camp Dean, Williamstown. Mary Adams of Adams and Johnnie Norcross are building a boat. Hope they will show us! Joe and Marion BWadley won't have to tear down one side of the building to get it out. We, of Maintenance, are looking forward to our annual picnic when they launch it in the Hoosic River.

Joe Russell, clerk in Charlie Dean's office, spent the week of June 16th in Danbury, Conn. All the boys in Maintenance missed her cheerful smile and were all glad to see her back.

Mrs. Batterby, from Maine, as far as we are concerned, he will be known as Mr. Batterby. We want to let you know who just asked Harold to be his only too glad to explain.

Pauline Adams in Warehouse No. 1 and Ray Shildes of Brown Street Maintenance Department, had a reunion together the week of July 22nd. They are going to lake Ontario this week, and also going in just as he has any flat tires. We understood that Ray is very good with flat tires. We wish him well.

Harry Hurlberri of Maintenance Electrical Dept. in the city, had his birthday this week. He has just received a mail order gift. We are happy to hear that.

The "Frank Sinatra" of Factory Engineering, with a beautiful voice, returned from his vacation. Doris Barnes and yours truly of Warehouse No. 8, have a whole week in which to rest our ears.

Welcome to our new rolliers, Dusty Flyers and Vincent ORTFeat. Glad to have you with us.

Oga Campbell has been doing a lot of sewing in our Sample Lab. He has recently been doing a lot of webbing with Rachelle Moon to record all the existing conversations. How can you think of changing that? That is certainly a beautiful surprise gift Liz Slattery gave you, Nita.

Chief Machinist's Mate Arthur Gilliams was born on leave recently. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Gilliams, and is on leave at the U.S. Naval Training Base, New London.

We hope Eda Beaudette will soon be well and back to work. A grand picnic was held at the U.S. Naval Training Base, Southport, Conn.

Meet In Pacific

Pvt. Edward Doherty and Pvt. Kenneth L. Peat, SM2c, enjoyed a friendly reunion in the Pacific theater according to a letter received by the parents of Peem Peat, Seaman 3/c, from the Naval Training Depot, Portland, Ore.

In a farewell party held for Marie Lemieux, they received wishes for a long life.

Dear Miss O'meara:

I want to thank you and the people at the plant for the gift box I received. I can assure you that the candy and dried fruits didn't last very long, and neither did the cookies. It was a good thing there was shaving cream, toothpaste, and the few minutes between us. And I only had the initials of the arresting officer before we had our opportunity to sing every song in the world.

I wish you all well and back to work.

Regards to the boys in the Machine Shop.
