The picture is a page from the Sprague Electric Log, October 11, 1947, vol. X, no. 5. It contains various articles and columns, which include:

- A section on football games, discussing the contest between North Adams and Williamstown for Saturday, October 18, published earlier. It mentions the scores for the football games scheduled for Friday, October 17, or before.

- An article about the old clock in the tower, which has been running for the past 52 years, and has been winded by a bell ringer.

- A column on Lionel, discussing the activities of Sprague Electric employees in the area.

- An article on the week's events, which includes mention of Francisco H. Hawkins of Williamstown, who was the appearance of two honest-to-goodness Indians, and the spruce-up of the Boy Scout Movement in the city. The article also mentions the interest shown in civic affairs and the participation of teen-agers and their problems.

- A column on the drivers' visit to the plants, discussing the organization work of all plants in the city. Plant Chairman Arthur Mathews and the Department Solicitors are working on the final details before the drive opens at Sprague Electric.

Alley Capers

John Tobin, veteran bowler, once more has served notice that he will be a strong contender for laurels in the Bowling Averages. Although not rolling such a high score in his second week as in the alloys, John snatched the pins-for-a-fine 432 the first time out.

The Management of the American Heritage Foundation is offering a prize of $1.00 for the highest single roll each week until October 31st. On September 25, John Tobin toppled the back with 111. On October 11, Col. DeGroat and Walt O'Dell both scored 117.

Come on Out and Watch Them

Spirit is running high this season and you are a bowling fan, why not visit the Central Bowling Alleys on a Thursday evening and watch the fun. Games start at 8 o'clock promptly — and you'll be assured of plenty of diversion.

Shipping Room

By The Gold Dust Twins

There is never a dull moment in the Shipping Room, especially with a hundred bee around, but you will see plenty of action on the part of Marcel Roberts. After shouting, "There's a hundred bee in here! Nobody gets it out, they can cross the room, dropped her pocketbook and sat on the lap of one of her co-workers. Said he: "These bees would come in here too much of them."

Last week Marie-Rose Lucier's eyes were bright as stars and she had a Peppermint smile. The reason: her heart closed down from the heaves was home on leave.

Welcome back to work, Gerald Cremin and Robert Knox.

Watch out for Marie-Rose Lucier when there's a cat around. You never know what she'll do. Recently, when a cat walked by, she let out a terrific yell and hid the girl's head in her lap before the cat opened its eyes.

Maintenance

The BIG NEWS: Miss Shirley King, our office girl, is to be married October 28th. Everybody is invited, so come on, come all.

Cleaving Bee

Art Giroux has purchased a lot at 56 North Sacony and plans to build a camp, so he asked the boys to help him clear the lot of shrubs and trees. And 60 acres. Art was surprised at the number of boys who showed up on Saturday morning. A good job — and a big one — was accomplished by our lack of Maintenance. A nice feed was put on by Art. It consisted of home-cooked baked beans, clam chowder, hot dogs, hamburgers and all that goes with such a feed. All went well until Buster Sherman drank his coffee, then he insisted he had a mouthful of bitter acid on his face. Disgustingly, Scotty Graves of the Lunchroom, we are told, ran to get some water to help the fine out, but by the time he got to him, Buster was all right again... Art Giroux wishes to thank all the boys who so gladly gave him a helping hand.

Our Great Lover and Pigeon Catcher, John Gifford (Walt O'Neil), received a ticket for double parking. When he reported at the station, he was asked if he had any love for a bird with him. Poor Wash fumbled around and had to Myrna, daughter of Mildred Magnani of Molded Tubulures, second child.

The answer "No." But, luckily for him, one of the boys with him had not forgotten him... It must be great to be in LOVE.

Welcome back to the Test Department, Mr. Robert Bohl. Bob formerly worked in the Networks Department.

On one of the recent cool mornings, Art Giroux was seen carrying into the building a large thermometer. "No wonder Bob didn't get warm that day!"
Holland Letter Received

Dear Friends,

One of the U-L-O-school at Rhenen, I herewith express my thanks for all you have done for us. Everything was very well managed and we could make good use of it. We all contributed a little to pay the dairy expenses. We cannot be grateful enough for what your country and other countries have done for Holland during the difficult years which are behind us. We always will remember this with great thankfulness.

With kindest regards for all co-workers, I remain, Sincerely yours,

Corry Krayman

PAA Rolling

Mary Messier, Theresa Jammallo, Martin Parrino and Tony Lavigne paraded with New York to the safety of the Chatter in the "Ladies' Lounge" the following Monday morning, the week end and the new clock was silent for a three-year period, it is possible to see the time at 5:00 A.M. Do you really like being the youngest grandmother in our Department. Mary was just thirty-seven when her daughter, Mrs. Alfred Buck gave birth to a baby girl recently.

From Europe

Capt. Kathleen (Bellows) Burns visited the Plant the other day after returning from many months of service with the W.A.C detachment in Germany, where she was stationed in Japan; Paul J. Crowley, formerly of Shipping, is stationed in Japan; Francis Perenick, nephew of Pete Mancuso, and formerly of Ovens, is stationed at Parris Island, S. C.; Philip Fossler, son of Ethel of Mine, Paper Assembly, is at Great Lakes Training Station.

Joseph A. Dasha

Sprague Electric Company and em- ployees express deep sympathy to Mr. William J. Nolan and Mrs. Nolan on the death of Mrs. Nolan's father, Joseph A. Dasha who passed away recently.

City of North Adams Cooperates in solving the problem of water supply for the event. When informed that no water was accessible for the "Camp- ers" the Department donated the city water wagon, which adequately furnish- ed all necessary water.

Our Kit Carson found that by getting on the wagon, he could direct some of the events very effectively.

Interest in the Biennial Organization

Another community project in which North Adams parents will take a great interest, is the newly organized one-age recreational center in the Roberts Building which opened its doors September 27th. Here high school boys and girls from ages of 14-18 will find plenty to do in the way of dean sport and fun. There are no restric- tions on race, color or creed.

He told us that their youngsters are being properly enter- tained—tended—and supervised—without any fear as to the nature of the entertainment. Rev. Armando Russo of St. Anthony's church is heading this project.

Celebrate Silver Anniversary

The Harry Trombley's have com- pulsed every year from their early life, and their children and relatives gather- ed at Trombley's home September 27th to pay their respects and wish them many more years of happy married life. The couple received a fine silver service for eight as an appropriate gift.

Harry is our genetic reporter from the Can Shop, and his wife, Eillian, is employed in the Paper Rolling De- partment. Our best wishes to you.

Smile appearing - Chris Pugliese in his new dark outfit - and looks like a sixteen year old.

Racheal Montagna was given a party recently - and after the gifts had been presented, she turned around and picked the girls as her chosen companions - and they all had a grand time. Romeo Gage brought in a box of apples for the girls the other evening. Thanks, Romeo, it was nice of you.

Yvonne Ross has become fitter over these mysterious telephone calls she's been getting.

Frances Roceay, Mary Sullivan, Alice Cowellson, Helena Gagnon, Lillian Forbush, Gladys Kirkpatrick, Rosie Brown, Alice Burdick are back on the job after enjoying vacations.

Sympathy is extended to Alice Cowellson on the recent death of her grandmother.

Congratulations to Ann Spagnolo who has become a member of her family - a black dropper sprout.
