Every year, each one of us brings out a checkout, a pile of bills and receipts, a few censuses, and attempts to determine exactly what is our financial condition. Most of us do this sometime in March when Uncle Sam demands a reckoning. But whenever we do it, it is always good to know just what we earned, what we spent, and what we saved during the preceding year. By this knowledge of the past, we can in some way prepare for the future.

In the same manner, our Company has been engaged in the preparation of a report on the operations and general well-being of the Company during 1950. This report has been completed for the fiscal year just ended. A closer scrutiny of the Company wants all of its employees to be informed of the facts concerning the operation of the Company. This report was generally open for inspection in some of the ways in which we operate, and this is a report of what was accomplished in the past year.

We will provide a balance sheet of the needs of the business and as used for the following:
- Wages and Salaries
- Taxes
- Dividends to stockholders
- Rent, and repairs
- Employment in business

As can be seen from the table:

The expansion at Nashua, plus the expansion at the Marshall Street plant in North Adams, and the purchasing of new equipment necessary to meet the customers' and military demands for products meant that the Company needed large sums of money which were not immediately accessible from our own funds. Hence, we borrowed $700,000 which increased our present ban to $2,000,000. We paid out $50,429 in interest during 1950.

After the expenses and taxes have been taken from the total income, the Company is left with net earnings of $3,000. This is a small sum of money, but it is a large sum considering the amount of money that we have to invest in the future.

It is requested that cars do not stop to pick up or let off passengers on Beaver Street. This ties up traffic. Please drive into the parking lot before stopping.

Dear Editor:

Editors are so often subjected to such unwarranted and undeserved criticism that it may serve all of us to receive this letter of merited praise. I thought it might interest you to know of the reaction of this department to their first reportorial effort in the LOG.

A few months ago, I inquired why this department never seemed to have it might interest you to know of the letter of merited praise. I thought to try my hand at reporting and this department never seemed to have
