Learn more about how MCLA prepares candidates to serve as highly effective leaders of educational institutions and active citizens in their communities. Students learn in a variety of cultural venues, advance their professional skills, are challenged to consider how equity, justice, and civil rights contribute to their work as anti-racist school leaders, and make lasting connections with faculty and educators around the region.

- Data-driven planning
- Lectures by prominent thinkers
- Fieldwork · A two-week summer residency, two weekend residencies (fall and spring), and a final residency hosted in the beautiful Berkshires
