

LEADERSHIP ACADEMY

MCLA prepares candidates to serve as highly effective leaders of educational institutions and active citizens in their communities. Students learn in a variety of cultural venues, advance their professional skills, are challenged to consider how equity, justice, and civil rights relate to their work, and make lasting connections with faculty and educators around the region.

Leadership Academy graduates will be able to:

- Shape a vision based on equity, justice, and academic success for all students;
- Create a climate hospitable for education in schools and the community;
- Cultivate collaborative leadership with faculty and staff;
- Improve curriculum and instruction;
- Manage people, data, and processes to foster continuous school improvement.

MCLA Leadership Academy students experience:

- Place-based curriculum
- Music
- Art integration
- Simulations
- EdCamp
- Project-based learning
- Self-assessment
- Design Thinking
- Writing for publication
- Equity audits
- Data-driven planning
- Lectures by prominent thinkers
- Fieldwork

MAJOR VALUE. MASSIVE IMPACT.

“THE PROGRAM WAS INTENSE,
BUT I WOULD DO IT ALL OVER AGAIN IN A HEARTBEAT.”

- Student, 2019 Cohort

Eligibility

- A current initial or higher educator license
- Three years of experience working under this license
- A master’s degree
- Submission of all required application materials

Licensure

Upon successful completion of the Leadership Academy, graduates are endorsed for administrator licensure.

In Massachusetts:

- principal/assistant principal preK-8 or 5-12
- Superintendent/assistant superintendent

In New York:

- Principal/assistant principal (SBL)
- Superintendent/assistant superintendent (SDL)*

*Candidates earn SDL by successfully completing one additional course and internship.

Our mission is to prepare school and district leaders who will ensure the highest quality and most equitable, just, and effective learning environments for students.

The Leadership Academy experience includes current best practices in instructional methodologies from nationally recognized educational theorists and successful school and district practitioners serving in the roles of superintendent, principal, curriculum coordinator, and department leader.

Courses include a blend of social, political, and academic theories and practices in examining current trends in public education.

C.A.G.S.

MCLA’s Certificate of Advanced Graduate Study (C.A.G.S.) in Educational Leadership is a post-master’s level certificate for professionals interested in a career as principal, superintendent, or other leadership roles in education. The nine hours of C.A.G.S. credit can also be transferred into Texas A&M’s doctoral program in educational leadership.

Cohort Model

MCLA Leadership Academy is a cohort model that blends academic content with practical skill and knowledge development; supports the advancement of working professionals; and is a low-residency model (summer and weekend) with independent and online work assigned between sessions.

Students earn 31 credits through pre-practicum experiences, seven courses, an administrative project, an administrative practicum, and a culminating Leadership Academy Conference.

Leadership Academy runs from July to July.
